

I benefit greatly from XM Radio's instant traffic and weather - it is available immediately, unlike AM and FM stations that make you wait through commercials and other programming.

Also I am GREATLY offended that the FCC would even consider regulating XM Radio in any way. This is a private service that I choose to pay for. This is an issue of consumer freedom and choice. Do NOT let the NAB dictate what private services I can and cannot purchase!